

The Council has approved the macroeconomic forecasts of the Ministry of Finance for the medium-term budget framework for 2022/24

Published: 17.06.2021.

The Fiscal Discipline Council points to a number of risks to the budget for the coming years.

The Fiscal Discipline Council has broadly approved the macroeconomic forecasts prepared by the Ministry of Finance (MoF) as a basis for the development of the medium-term budgetary framework for 2022-2024, but considers that they should be supplemented with data and stresses the need for modeling additional stress scenarios considering several risks.
